THE TOWN RECORD

(Ed. Note: The Town Record column appears this week for the first time and will be continued as a regular feature in THE RECORD. We propose, through this column, to present to readers a verbal panorama of happenings in and about Daly City, with a liberal distribution of names, facts, places, things and what-have-you thrown in for, we hope, your enjoyment.)

By Monte Dayton

Complying with the old adage, first things first, it comes to our attention that AL STACK, sales manager at Gateway Chevrolet company, has had the honor for the second time of becoming a father. His wife gave birth to a boy Vincent, Tuesday, making the ratio in the Stack family now even at two all. Papa and Mama Stack and the two little Stacks abide in Brentwood. Mrs. Stack is resting well and doctors give the pater a good chance to survive the shock.

J. H. BERNING, owner of Berning's Men's Wear, joined the cigar-set last week with the arrival of a baby girl, JOANN. Father Berning kept his shop open on the B-day but his usual amicable nature suffered somewhat under the strain and he didn't really give a hoot whether the customers came in or not. Everything is Kosher now, however, with mama Berning and the newly born resting well and the nominal head of the family back in his men's store with his equanimity restored.

Another birth notice . . . a little precocious . . . in store for MR. and MRS. TOM THIMIS JR. BEATRICE has left her job at the Daly City water department, where she toiled as a municipal servant for a year, and is attending to more domestic duties at her Peoria street home, 118, until the time (about four fortnights) when the size of the Thimis family will be increased by 50 per cent.

HELEN PISTOLESI, who has been working round and about the city hall for some months now, has been sent in as Beatrice's replacement at the water works. Helen is a Daly City citizen at 220 North Mayfair.

A new face, that of MRS. MAE HAALAND, 178 Wyandotte, is to be seen at the insurance office of PETE MARKOVICH, 6454 Mission. She is taking over the job of remembering Pete's golf dates, civic meetings and, oh, incidently, handling the secretarial details, formerly executed by FRANCIS CARCOT, who has foregone her Yankee sympathies and moved down south to Los Altos.

Rubbing elbows with the notables at BING CROSBY'S Pebble Beach golf extravaganza last week end were FRANK GIGLI, local plumber, and BEVERLY and BOB SILVESTRI (somewhat of a notable himself in golf circles). Frank left on a Tuesday for an elongated weekend and spent his sojourn at Carmel, a centrally located spot that puts all three famed Monterey peninsula golf courses within easy reach.

Beverly spent part of her time watching husband, Bob, trod the links and wind up in a tie for sixth spot. But for the most part she and her gallery companion, Siggy, a sportsminded canine, watched the antics of the very-important persons sprinkled profusely throughout the tournament greens. No public announcement was made of scores on the 19th hole, but it is assumed the movie stars made the cup in at least par. Bob was tickled pink with the tournament, and hopes to see an invitation come his way again next year. Judging by his performance, Bingle should see fit to summon Silvestri to the greensward again next year.

Swiped from the DALY CITY-COLMA LIONS weekly bulletin, but nevertheless worth repating, is the vignette concerning JOE BELLI, local storekeep and one of the more active in the Lions den. Joe worked hard on his outdoor Christmas display to outdo any of his past efforts. When it came time for the BROADMOOR PROPERTY OWNER'S ASSOCIATION to pick the winner, it was Joe's home by a full length. But,

The building will contain 33,000 square feet of space and will include 44 stalls. Approximately 50 persons will be employed in the service department, headed by Ralph Richardson. The sales department will have a staff of about ten persons.

The building, which will comprise one of the largest Oldsmobile agencies in the country, is expected to be finished in from six to eight months, Murphy said.

TWO-YEAR OLD SAVES LIVES OF B'MOOR FAMILY

Mr. and Mrs. Lucien Broussal, 1703 Fleetwood drive, Broadmoor, and their family are alive today—probably because of their two-year-old son, Ronald.

Young Ronald awoke Tuesday, shortly after midnight, complaining of feeling weak and dizzy. He staggered into his parents' bedroom, crying, "I feel funny," and collapsed.

His parents, Lucien, 29, and Marie, 28, were wakened by his cry and saw the boy fall to the floor.

They also felt weak and dizzy.

Broussal took his family, including the two girls, Rose Marie, 9, and Jacqueiin, 4, to Junipero Serra hospital where they were treated and released.

While the family had been sleeping, they were being slowly overcome by fumes from the fireplace in their home.

Broadmoor Police Chief Ray Savage said apparently the fumes were caused by sawdust logs burning in the living room fireplace. Savage said the windows and the fireplace vents were closed by Broussal earlier "to hold the warmth" in the house.

Her husband opened the windows of the house as soon as he realized the danger of the fumes, Mrs. Broussal said.

"It was only by the grace of God we are alive," Mrs. Broussal said.

April Earliest Possible Date On Bond Vote

James Kennedy, secretary of the north county sanitation board, said this week that April would be the earliest possible date for holding of the half-million dollar bond election to provide money for a primary-type sewage treatment plant here.

A meeting of the board is scheduled for Jan. 26, at which time the group is expected to approve the overall report of Harry Jenks, engineer for the district.

Thomas Callan, newly appointed member of the board, reviewed the report at Monday's meeting and said he had no objections to it, but would like further time to go over it in full.

Monday the board considered the request of E. C. McMahon, of the Army Engineers, asking that the army site near here be connected immediately with the district's sewage facilities, since 75 to 100 additional men are scheduled to be located on the base.

Kennedy said the board would consider either making a contract with the Army for disposal of sewage or annexing the area.

WESTLAKE BOARD SAYS NO STAND YET ON SECESSION

By the board of directors

All organizations, when they are formed, have the usual growing pains of any new group, but now, apparently that the pains are gone, your newly reorganized Board of Directors emerges as a Board that is really going to work for you! The members of the Board wish you to know that this is your association; that they are there to serve you, and your desires which they hope you will express at their regular 1st Monday of the month meetings. They are intent on producing results which will benefit the whole beautiful community of Westlake, not just individual or special interests. Future statements will be made by the Board, acting in unity and accord, and based on facts. This will prevent any individual's statement from being misinterpreted as an official statement of your representitives in Westlake property affairs.

Your Board desires to state that it takes no position on the subject of secession until the people of this tract study the facts and then express a majority desire to have the Board act in their behalf based on their findings. The Board intends to take prompt and efficient action on all requests based on facts and not personalities, to improve any conditions of this community, if necessary by eco-

City Named In Suit For $75,000 Damages

City Council Asks Traffic Fines Office

The city council adopted a resolution Monday night requesting an amendment to the state municipal court act to allow the establishment of a traffic fines bureau here.

The resolution, copies of which were ordered forwarded to Harry Parkman, state senator, Daniel J. Creedon and Richard Dolwig, state assemblyman, and the county board of supervisors, also called for an appointed officer to sit here and set bail and warrants for Daly City traffic cases.

Meanwhile, Judge Thomas L. Bocci, who presides over the new Municipal court in South San Francisco, has agreed to sit here on Friday mornings to handle traffic matters.

City Administrator Dan Andersen met with County Manager Robert Stallings Monday in connection with the matter of a court for Daly City.

Andersen had said earlier that a fifth district municipal court is needed in Daly City.

"The present northern district municipal court in South San Francisco is stretched too thin over the whole Coastside, Daly City, Brisbane, Colma, Bayshore and San Bruno," he said.

With traffic fines bureau in operation here some of the inconvenience of travelling to South San Francisco would be alleviated, he added.

In advertising it's results that count.

That THE RECORD and The Shopping News get results can be testified to by many of our advertisers.

Mrs. W. A. Pulliam, 274 Irvington street, had an apartment to rent last week so she called The Shopping News and had a classified ad inserted.

Immediately after publication her apartment was rented and she received more than 15 inquiries after making the rental.

Grace Wilson of Toyland Nursery can also vouch for the effectiveness of advertising in The Shopping News. Her ad asking for someone to do house work at the nursery received more than 40 calls.

Public Hearing Slated On Bepler St. Rezoning

A public hearing will be held Monday, February 9 at 8 p.m. in the council chamber on the proposed rezoning of property at the end of Bepler street.

Dale G. Stuart seeks to have the property changed from a R-1 to a R-3 district, to allow construction of apartment house dwellings.

First Payment On City Taxes Nets $167,099

A new record was established here in first installment payments on city taxes, with revenue amounting to $167,099.28 being accepted at the office of City Clerk B. C. Ross.

First installment for the year's taxes on general property, unsecured personal property and public utilities became payable Nov. 1 and became delinquent December 10.

Amount collectable on the first installment was $134,487.98. Ross explained that many taxpayers choose to pay the whole lien at the beginning of the year, thus accounting for the more than $30,000 collected above the figure due.

Last year a total of $136,809.36 was collected on the first payment, a record at that time.

The second payment may be made beginning Jan. 20 and becomes delinquent April 20.

County Will Hear Broadmoor Flood Complaint Tuesday

A hearing will be held Tuesday before the county board of supervisors on petition of Broadmoor residents charging that flood control measures in the community are inadequate.

Residents of 88th and 89th street presented the petition to the board at its last regular meeting. They charge that flood control measures established there by the county are inadequate for both temporary and permanent relief.

According to Mrs. William Beck, one of the petitioners, when heavy rains occur, the ditch at the end of 89th street fills with trash and backs up the flood water. She said the water inundates the streets and lawns and on occasions, makes it impossible for persons to get out their front doors.

The hearing is scheduled to begin at 2 p.m.

SALE OF FIRE BONDS OPENS

Notice of intention of sale of $173,500 in general obligation bonds for additional fire protection here was given at Monday night's council meeting.

The bonds, to go for construction of a fire house in Westlake and purchase of additional fire protection equipment, were authorized by Daly City voters in the election

Charge City, Paving Co. With Negligence

A damage suit for $75,000 was filed with the city council Monday night by John and Nellie Dykman, naming the city of Daly City and Bregato Paving company defendants.

The Dykmans, owners of the property at 196 Wellington avenue, where a restraining wall collapsed recently, causing tons of dirt and rubble and a storage house to fall to the street, charge that the paving company and the city "negligently created an unsafe condition on public property by excavating dirt and rock in a negligent and careless manner."

Lives in Danger

According to the suit, the defendants allowed the dirt to settle and slide after heavy rainfall, causing "imminent danger to their lives."

The Dykmans claim that the city and the paving company had knowledge of the dangerous condition and knew the proper remedies, yet still neglected to take the necessary precautions.

They maintain they were placed under "constant fear and anxiety for their lives" and were subjected to severe mental and physica languish."

According to the Dykmans, the dangerous conditions still remain.

$50,000 for Property

They ask $50,000 for deterioration of real property and $25,000 for their "anxiety, discomfort and fear."

The council denied the claim and it was filed with City Attorney Frank Blum.

The law firm of Fahey, Castagnetto and Gallen represent the Dykmans.

In other matters concerning the Brunswick street extension at Monday night's council meet, the city rejected the Bragato paving company's request for $1350 as a progress payment for work on the extension.

Councilman Paul Green said: "I don't believe we should pay this sum in view of the suit on file. I'd like to know more about what caused this cave-in."

Ban Knowles Parking

The council also voted to ban parking on the north side of Knowles avenue from Mission to Junipero Serra until a time when that street is widened. Police Chief Roland Petrocchi was directed to place notices of no-parking on the street and City Administrator Dan Andersen was asked to take care of removal of parking meters.

In other action Monday night the council:

1. Passed a resolution commending Wililam Sweeney for his more than ten years service as judge here. The resolution said "His demeanor has always been

Police Commission Asks Addition Of Five to Department

A recommendation that five men be added to the local police department has been forwarded to the city council by the police commission.

The commission met Tuesday night and main items up for discussion were the manpower and equipment situations.

Victor Baher, chairman of the commission, said in figuring the community's need for police personnel, it was difficult to use a set ratio as is done by some other peninsula cities. "We have as many or more problems as San Francisco," he said. He explained that some peninsula cities use a ratio of one man for every 1000 population.

The commission recommended one additional patrolman for each shift, making a total of three men, and two extra motorcycle patrolmen.

They also asked for purchase of another partol car and one motorcycle.

Baher said the commission believed addition of too many men to the force at one time would result in hampering operations rather than aiding them, because training of the new men would require much of the regular staff's time.

"We have to do this in a sensible manner," he added.

Contributions For Polio Fund Urgent, County Head Says

The dire need for more contributions to the polio fund during the 1953 "March of Dimes" campaign now in progress was emphasized today by T. J. Hallinan, again director of the drive in San Mateo county.

"We have expended some $90,000 during 1952 for polio victims in this county," Director Hallinan said, "and there seems to be no

Population At 21,000 in D.C.

FIGURES ALSO INDICATE 30,000 IN GREATER DALY CITY AREA NOW

An informal survey conducted this week indicates that Daly City proper has a population in excess of 21,000, while the figure for the entire greater Daly City area (including Broadmoor and Colma) may be nearer 30,000.

Joseph Rohl of the local PG&E company, said there were approximately 9,779 individual building units in the greater Daly City area. Figuring, on the average, of three persons per home, would give the approximate population for the area.

A report issued by the PG&E, an outlook for 1953, seemed to verify the 21,000 figure for Daly City proper. The prospectus for the year 1953 predicted that San Mateo county would see a 36.5 per cent growth in poulation since 1950, largest of any county in the state.

Population in 1950 was 15,066 and the 36.5 per cent jump would bear out the estimate of a 21,000 population here.

City Clerk B. C. Ross also made the same estimate Monday night, placing the number of residents within the city limits at 21,000.

There are more than 2000 homes outside the city limits but within the area known as "Greater Daly City."

The PG&E outlook for 1953 showed second largest future growth to be in Contra Costa county, with 25.5 per cent. An increase of only 4.7 per cent was shown for San Francisco county, and 10.1 per cent for Alameda county.

Rohl added that, in view of growth foreseen here, the PG&E will spend an estimated $1,080,000 in the Daly City area the coming year to provide facilities for the burgeoning population and busi-

Citizens' Committee Begins Campaign To Pass School Bonds

A citizens' committee for better schools held its first meeting recently and named groups to work for passage of the $840,000 school bond to come before the voters of the Jefferson elementary school district on Feb. 5.

H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of the district, and Fred Schweickhardt, coordinator of guidance and pupil accounting, explained to the group the reasons for the forthcoming bond election. All of those present enthusiastically supported

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE ELECTS BOARD; WILLIAM KENNEDY NAMED PRESIDENT

More than 65 members turned out last week to elect the first board of directors for the revived Chamber of Commerce which has been undergoing a sustained membership drive the past few month.

Selected to head the 15-man board as president was William Kennedy, who was also president of the organization before it began its renewed activity.

WILLIAM KENNEDY
...Chamber President

Kennedy expressed an optimistic outlook for the organization and said all members have shown "wonderful enthusiasm" to date.

"However," he added, "the initial phase of the organization will be the most important. We must exercise care in our first actions."

Kennedy said he and other members of the board hoped to meet with the San Francisco Chamber of Commerce for possible ideas and counsel.

He also said formation of a Junior Chamber of Commerce here was a laudable plan. "If someone goes ahead on the idea," he said, "we will work hand in hand with them."

Other officers of the board are D. D. Harris, vice president; Robert Hunter, secretary; William Sweeney Jr., treasurer; and Alice "Pat" Van Over, executive secretary.

At last week's meeting it was agreed to continue the drive for charter members until Jan. 31.

Others elected to the board were: Peter Markovich, Joseph Rohl, George Kirchhubel, Tom Callan Jr., George Glasse, L. C. Pelham, Frank Lombardi, Dr. Robert Gobar, Vince Bowman, Stanford Hannah and H. H. Smith Jr.

The board was scheduled to hold a luncheon meet yesterday to discuss initial policy for the chamber.

nomic application of the funds at its disposal.

An example of their eager desire to better this entire area is the manner in which they are acting upon the request of a member who visited their last meeting to have signs installed throughout Westlake telling drivers to "SLOW DOWN," "CHILDREN AT PLAY," and "SCHOOL CROSSING." Within one week they will have a complete report on costs and availability of the signs, they will conduct a survey of the area to determine where the signs will best serve their purpose, and will have them installed at the earliest possible time. This, your Board believes, is not only a wise spending of the dormant funds, but also the most vital problems, since 80% of the people in Westlake have children—their most precious possession—and should be protected before a serious accident occurs.

Some of the other items on the agenda of the Board which are stated for their prompt attention are—Stop signals on Alemany; replacement of dead trees; requests for arterial stops; provide assistance and cooperation to welfare groups such as Boy Scout, Cub Scouts, PTA, etc.; improve association by-laws; inform members by news articles of action and progress on requests or projects concerning the association. This highly democratic Board will abide strictly by the by-laws, which means it will conduct its meetings in an orderly fashion according to Roberts Rules of Order, this permitting satisfactory attention and respect to any member who desires to express himself either at a Board meeting or a general meeting.

This Board, acting on common sense and good logical reasoning with a desire to get things done, done now, and for you, is heartened by the expressions of full cooperation from outside groups, as well as many of the members, on its reorganization, and it feels it can not help but make great strides in this new year. It is certain that if you judge it by the results of its efforts, you will be sure to realize that when it completes its various tasks we are all going to have a more wonderful, progressive community in which to live!

For your convenience Board meetings will no longer be held in the small Board room, but will be held in the large main room of the club house to accommodate as many members who would like to attend its meetings. You can be assured of being very welcome. Refreshments will be served. Take a sincere, active, interest in "your" association—come to its monthly meetings!

alas, since Joe is a member of the association's board of directors, it wasn't considered quite cricket for him to win. So they scratched him from the race as "ineligible." But consolation, albeit, small, came shortly after. Lion brethren awarded his house first prize in their contest and the Bellis had a potted plant bestowed upon them . . . instead of the $50 Broadmoor first prize award.

Only one more year to go and MR. and MRS. W. S. OLIVER, 256 Hillside boulevard, will be among that select rank of married couples married for a solid fifty years. But with 49 already behind them, they figured some sort of celebration was in order. Mr. and Mrs. and their family spent the anniversary last Saturday dining and dancing at Lyle's in South San Francisco.

Look for a worthy group to inaugurate some type of year-round charitable activity here. After all, people like to eat at other times besides Christmas, too, even though the gesture of giving baskets on the holidays is a commendable one. Some argue the county should aid the needy families, but, then, that means feeding the county anyway, so why not let some charity begin at home where its effects can be measured.

ELTON MCGRAW, of McGraw Bros. pharmacy, is resting in Franklin hospital, San Francisco, after an operation Wednesday on a dislocated disc. consistent with the high office he held. He served with his heart as well as his mind and has tempered his justice with mercy. He has been a credit to the city of Daly City and has served in his capacity with distinction."

More Detailed Reports

2. Asked that future health reports be more detailed. On completion of the city clerk's reading of the report Councilman Green said "We are still getting the same little flimsy report." Green pointed out that there had been some argument over the report two years ago and the county had agreed to furnish more data. The council asked Andersen to contact the county health director and see if a more sufficient report could be offered.

Furnish Files

3. Advised the planning commission that complete files and maps should accompany planning recommendations in the future. The council also told Col. H. Bridgman, who is applying for a permit to construct a motel near Skyline boulevard, that more time would be needed to study plans for his project. Bridgman is scheduled to meet with the council Monday night for further discussion on the matter.

4. Suggested that a check be made on the vehicle used by the city building inspector. The gasoline report for the month showed 40 gallons of gas used by the inspector for 210 miles of travel.

5. Approved payments to: Joseph McFadden and son, $2,232.53 for final work on Hillside boulevard; A. M. Harrison, $2,514.24 for plumbing work done on the community center; Edwards, Foulk and Dana, $2,623.51 for the new storm sewer on Mission street.

6. Discussed salary raises for Lorraine De Fanti, acting librarian.

7. Heard from Lee Taylor, who complained about the tagging of cars parked overnight in the street.

let up in numbers of victims even in the winter months, which is unusual."

Appointment of D. D. Harris, manager of the Bank of America in Daly City to serve as Daly City chairman for the drive, was announced by Claude J. Hirschey, treasurer of the local county chapter of the National Foundation for Infantile Paralysis.

One important phase of the campaign is distribution of the model "iron lung" coin collectors. Hirschey stressed, which is being handled in Daly City under the direction of Harris and his aides in the shops and stores throughout this community for the month of January.

They are to be picked up on or before February 10, as elsewhere throughout the county, and a check for the contents to the "March of Dimes" to be sent Treasurer Hirschey. He is manager of the San Francisco Bank branch in Burlingame, where funds for the drive are deposited each year.

Carl E. Ward, manager of the American Trust Co. branch in downtown San Mateo, is again chairman of the county chapter, with Henry F. Misselwitz, writer, continuing as executive-secretary in charge of details through the year.

CROSS FOUND BURNING HERE AT EARLY HOUR

A crude wooden cross was found burning at the intersection of Westlake and Woodrow streets early Monday morning, without apparent reason.

The cross, which was extinguished after a driver notified police, consisted of two boards rudely nailed together and stuck in a can of dirt and deposited in the middle of the street. Police believe juveniles may have fashioned the cross.

Collection Cans Go Out For March of Dimes

The March of Dimes got underway here this week with more than 100 collection cans being placed in business houses throughout the city.

Dan Harris, manager of the Daly City branch of the Bank of America, heads the drive here for business collections. Emmett Reilly, chief clerk of the local bank, is in charge of distribution of the cans.

The campaign for funds to aid those stricken with polio is expected to be successful here, as in past years, Harris said.

AIR FORCE SEEKS CADET APPLICANTS

Sgt. Maugeri, local U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force recruitor announced today that the U. S. Air Force is expediting Aviation Cadet applicants for Aircraft Observor training from civilian life. To qualify you must be a United States citizen, single, and between the ages of 19 to 26½ years with at least 60 semester hours at an accredited college. Flight training students are schooled in Aircraft Engineering, Weather Navigation, Principles of Flight, Radio Communication, Code and Aircraft Maintenance.

Applications from persons who possess a baccalaureate degree will be expedited, and they will not have to take the usual pre-screening examination.

Eligible young men may obtain further information by contacting Sgt. Maugeri at the U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force recruiting station at San Mateo or by phoning DI. 3-6490.

$9000 Needed To Reach Quota In Xmas Seal Drive

As of Jan. 10, donations to the San Mateo County Tuberculosis and Health Association for its 1952 Christmas Seals, amount to a little over $51,000. Only $9,000 additional is needed to go "over the top" of the $60,000 goal.

"From present indications," Mary Helen Williamson, Association Executive Secretary, said today, "Dr. St. J. Lester Russell, president of the association, Mrs. R. E. Pettingill, 1952 Seal Sale chairman, and I have every reason to believe we will reach our goal. The second series of reminder cards will be mailed on the 15th to those who have not as yet sent in the money for their Seals. It is easy to forget, in the holiday rush," she pointed out, "but we known when San Mateo county residents are reminded of the year 'round work of the association, they will want to help by sending in the money promptly. We depend solely on funds derived from the annual Seal Sale to carry on our program of giving free chest Xrays to thousands of county residents, for rehabilitation work with TB patients and for educational programs in the schools and for the public." She reminded contributors that each year the responsibilities and work of the association grow to keep pace with the rapidly expanding population of the county.

RADIATOR AND HEATER HOSES

Hot water flowing through a rubber hose under pressure for a considerable period of time may cause the interior to swell and retard the flow of water; and such deterioration cannot be detected by external examination. This is why good mechanics always recommend replacing old radiator and heater hoses on an antomobile when the engine is being overhauled, explains the California State Automobile Association.

Pine Flat Reservoir on the Kings River will have a maximum capacity of 1,100,000 feet of water on completion.

Interior of City Hall Undergoes Transformation With Paint

THE CITY HALL gets a face lifting. Here George Leidecker, of Manor Painters, scrapes off some of the old paint in preparation for applying new coat to brighten up city hall's interior. Re-furbishing the hall's pealing wall's got underway last Friday. Many of the offices have already received their first coat and, though the odor is a little annoying, the city workers say it's worth it to have the new look.

Local Youth Now On Korean Front

WITH THE 45th INFANTRY DIV. IN KOREA—Pvt. Tom J. Davidson, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Davidson, 581 Hanover street, Daly City, Calif., recently arrived in Korea and is serving with the 45th Infantry Division.

The 45th arrived in Korea in December 1951 and captured "T-Bone" hill in June's see-saw hill battles.

World War II veterans will remember this same division, in 1944, held its toe-hold at Anzio beachhead for four months against violent German assaults. They then attacked across the Tiber River and outflanked Rome.

Private Davidson entered the Army in February 1952 and is now serving as a rifleman in Company A of the division's 279th Infantry Regiment.

He received his basic training at Fort Ord, Calif.

In civilian life Davidson was employed by the Regal Roofing Company.

Drinking and then driving is a violation of the laws of decency as well as the California Vehicle Code, reports National Automobile Club. Courts show little sympathy toward the person who will drink and then drive his car in violation of the laws. A safe driver will never mix the two.

She Walked a Mile

Grace Stockdale, 9, stepped off a mile of baton twirling during a recent parade in her home town of Ogden City, Utah. This was after four leg operations performed with March of Dimes financial assistance. Her father, William Stockdale, said the March of Dimes provides an "opportunity for handicapped people to live and behave as normal individuals." Dimes drive ends Jan. 31.

Narcotics Film On Tap for Hillside PTA Members Soon

The Hillside PTA will hold its regular meeting at the Colma school Wednesday night of January 21st at 8 p.m. The school is located at Market and Hillside streets.

A film on Narcotics will be shown for adults only. The unit is featuring "Health" as their topic for the evening. Mrs. Fred Bertetta, the health chairman, has been able to contact Mr. Louis DeMatteis, the San Mateo County District Attorney to be the speaker for the evening. Posing an Inconvenience

As is probably already evident to many Daly City residents, the municipal court setup is, to date, not the embodiment of efficiency that the state legislature had in mind when they passed the law reorganizing the lower court system.

The integration move, instead of streamlining jurisprudence and cutting down duplication, has only posed an inconvenience on the taxpayers and left most cities denuded of any type of court facilities.

Of course, the system is as yet in the embryo stage, and must be given a fair chance to work itself out, if there is a possibility that it can be worked out.

However, one method of relieving the problem would be the establishment of a traffic fines bureau here.

The majority of dealings with the court consist of minor traffic fines and it is an unmitigated outrage for a citizen to have to drive ten miles round trip to pay a trifling $1 fine.

Some of the cities in the court network even have it worse.

Therefore, the request by the city council of this city, and others, to have the fines bureaus set up should not go unheeded by the state.

They have fashioned this court brainstorm, and it's up to them to see that it operates with some modicum of efficiency.

We hope to see a traffic fines bureau here in the very near future.

Something Besides Epithets

Taxes in this area seem to be like the weather everywhere—everybody talks about them, but nobody does anything about it.

Even the county tax collector has told this paper that tax assessments in the north county area are "way out of line."

His word should bear enough weight to indicate something ought to be done.

The only way to get at the problem is for a group of citizens, the larger the better, to band together and make themselves heard before the county as one voice, the louder the better.

The county, as far as the 50 per cent assessment boost, is helpless, but if enough pressure were put on locally, it would eventually reach the bigwigs, Reilly et. al., in the state's big dome.

San Mateo county could, however, undo some of the grievances piled on taxpayers of this area.

They could acquire a full-time assessment team, with necessary qualifications, to make assessments and do away with the haphazard methods employed now.

An example of the lackadaisical methods was evidenced with the recent reassessment. Some property that had not been reevaluated for more than ten years was reassessed just a few weeks prior to the 50 per cent assessment raise. Then with the assessment boost piled on, the size of the property owner's tax load was staggering.

This slipshod practice of valuating property will survive only as long as the county taxpayers allow it to.

Let's see some action along with the grumbling and epithets muttered under the breath against the tax fixers.

It Looks Good So Far

We are heartened to see the overwhelming success the Chamber of Commerce is having in its early stages.

With a charter membership roster numbering nearly 130 and with attendance at meetings running between 60 and 70 it looks like the chamber will be far from a token organization.

Wililam Kennedy, the new president, has put his finger on the thing which seems to be the key to the organization's success to date—an ardent personal enthusiasm on the part of all the members.

With this enthusiasm, the chamber has, to begin with, the one most important tool to work with.

Of course, they can't operate on pure gusto and enthusiasm alone.

But as Kennedy also points out, early decisions of the chamber will have to be made with care in view of past fiascoes in similar organizations. So it is evidence that the leaders of the new chamber are not going to barge right into the middle of an issue without pondering the facts first.

Another facet of the chamber which might bear considering is a Junior Chamber of Commerce. Kennedy seemed in accord with such an idea and said the senior chamber could work hand in hand with it.

The chamber has just begun here and a great potential of worthy projects seem to be on the horizon.

In view of the work done so far, we think they'll make a go of it.

A Darn Good Idea

From the seemingly endless number of ideas proposed to gain money for completion of the community center, comes a downright good one from Mrs. Lydia E. Talbot, 244 Westlake avenue.

Mrs. Talbot is from Colorado, where social events aren't restricted to pompous affairs where ladies sport $5 orchids and the gentlemen twitch and itch in tuxedoes that cost far more than the enjoyment rendered.

"Back there," Mrs. Talbot says, "when we needed money all the women got together and made box lunches—some pretty fancy, other in just plain old shoe boxes.

"Then we got together at a social, the men bought the lunches, everybody danced and had a good time." And just as an afterthought, the event usually netted the folks $40 or $50."

So Mrs. Talbot told us how they raise money where she comes from, and suggested it might work in the community center on a larger scale.

Such an event wouldn't have to be restricted to the older set. The teen-agers, after a fling at it, might find themselves having a regular old-fashioned hoe-down.

By combining the box-lunch with dancing, the affair would appeal to one and all.

A fee, say $1, could be charged for the lunches, all of which would go in the kitty for completion of the bulding.

The project is worth looking into. First, the community would get a chance to make use of the long-overdue building. Second, this use of the building would make possible completion of the building and the launching of further recreational activities.

Mrs. Talbot has given us food for thought. We're ready to plunk down our dollar and give it a fling.

AROUND THE AREA

Hog-Ranching Wrangle

Final hearing January 21 on application of Thomas J. Callan Jr. to rezone property near San Gregorio for a million-dollar hog ranch promises to be a heated affair.

The applicant is the son of Thomas J. Callan, who recently filled his seat as county supervisor. Callan Sr was also named to serve on the county's planning commission.

A group of 100 property owners, known as the "San Gregorio Committee Against Hog Ranch Zoning," have protested the hog ranch in a letter forwarded to the board of supervisor and the planning commission.

They directly asked that the supervisors and planners "not yield to political pressure."

Seek Local Payment

Burlgame motorists should be able to pay their parking fines in Burlingame, according to the Burlingame Chamber of Commerce.

The chamber, in making the statement, authorized Cyrus J. McMillan, recently elected president, to take what action necessary to achieve that goal.

The directors authorized McMillan to contact county supervisors to seek changes in county legislation which would allow a deputy clerk of the court to be stationed in Burlingame to collect fines after Police Chief R. C. Theuer explained that since an inferior court reorganization went into effect a week ago Burlingame motorists must go to San Mateo to pay their parking fines.

Miss-Adventure Ends

Three young Alameda girls who left home last week were returned home to their parents last week a little worse for their one-day's odyssey.

The youngsters, one 12 and the other two 14, appeared at the county jail in Redwood City and asked the jailer to call their parents.

The trio had left their homes on the way to school at 8 a.m. Wednesday morning. But they met instead at a prearranged place and walked from Alameda to the Oakland approach to the bay bridge.

After a succession of rides they reached the southern part of San Mateo county. But their hunger soon overcame their zest for travel and they were back at home again, hungry, frightened and a little footsore.

Taxes Hit Apex

More people paid taxes than ever before and more money was collect during the first installment period for payment of county taxes, according to County Tax Collector Ralph C. MacArthur.

Of the total tax levy of $20,156,898 for the current fiscal year, a total of $11,947,007 was collected by the December 10 deadline.

Second and final installments are due January 20 and the delinquency date is April 20.

Dies of Burns

Karl Lokeng, 44-year-old San Mateo carpenter, succumbed last week at Mills hospital 26 hours after he had been burned in a gasoline tank explosion at his home, 229 Eighth avenue.

His death came as a result of first, second and third degree burns suffered in the explosion Sunday, Jan. 4.

He had rallied earlier the previous day and doctors hoped for recovery.

Attending physician Dr. Kenneth Allen said that Lokeng's body was 80 per cent burned by the explosion. No man has been known to survive that serious a burn, Dr. Allen said.

Lokeng's wife, Hannah, suffered a relapse and was under doctor's care the day of his death.

Washes Its Hands

South San Francisco's city council "washed its hands" of a parking meter advertising proposal of the Park-Ad company, by rescinding a motion made last September approving installation of the device.

The proposal, presented by Walter W. Cribbins as public relations director of the Park-Ad company, would have installed metal signs on the city's 300 parking meters, with the city getting a percentage of the profits.

The proposal has also been turned down in Daly City and Burlingame.

Worried Over Son

A Redwood City mother, Mrs. Grace Pastarelli, 43, of 558 Seventh avenue, killed herself last week, apparently because of worry about her son in Korea.

Sheriff's deputies William Moran and William Granley said Mrs. Pastarelli shot herself in the head with a .22-calibre automatic pistol.

Joseph Pastarelli, her husband, who found her lying on a bedroom floor when he arrived home from work, said his wife had suffered from a nervous disorder and had worried about the safety of her son, by a former marriage, Sgt. Maynard McCray, who is fighting with the First Marine division in Korea. He could give no other explanation for the suicide. No note was left.

Vandals Play Hob

Upwards of 500 homes in the southern end of the county were blacked out last week by a power failure which occurred when vandals severed two large electric lines with bullets.

Without electricity for more than three hours were the western parts of Menlo Park and Atherton, Woodside, Portola, La Honda, San Gregorio, Half Moon Bay and the area north of Pescadero.

The sheriff's office has been notified and an investigation is underway to attempt to learn the identity of the sharpshooting pranksters.

ALL RETAIL FOOD STORES TO CLOSE DURING DISASTER OR ENEMY ATTACK

In a bulletin to all local directors of Civil Defense, Maj. Gen. Walter M. Robertson, State Director of Civil Defense at Sacramento, advises that during enemy attack or other widespread disaster all retail food stores will be closed and all food stocks frozen.

The primary purpose of the emergency action will be to prevent panic buying and to protect the public from the possibility of contamination.

Food stores will be shut down for at least 24 hours after establishment of a state of extreme emergency, which will be automatic if the state is attacked. After that time, local Civil Defense authorities will be permitted to use their discretion.

Restaurants, cafeterias, hotels, hospitals, public institution and similar establishments where food is consumed on the premises are exempted from the regulation.

Implementation of the emergency plan will be under the direction of a state food administrator, functioning as a part of the State Office of Civil Defense. He will impound, allocate and release all food stocks, subject to authorization by the Governor. Each of the state's 10 mutual aid regions also will have a regional food administrator.

Though voluntary cooperation of the food industry will be sought in putting the plan into effect, the food administrator will be armed with sufficient authority to enforce his directives, General Robertson said.

"The plan for the emergency control of food lends added emphasis to the Family Food Shelf program which this office has advocated for some time," General Robertson commented. "Every family in California is again strongly urged to maintain at least three days' supply of food staples in the home for emergency use in the event of disaster," he added.

Authority to assume control of the state's food supplies in an emergency was approved by the State Disaster Council and the Governor's Food and Nutrition Advisory Council.

FIRE FIGHTERS' FACTS

(Ed. note: This column, including information and interesting data from your local fire department, has been resumed again and will appear as a weekly feature in THE RECORD.)

By MEL HANSON

Fire Prevention Bureau

The Daly City Fire Prevention Bureau of the Daly City Fire Department wishes to extend to all residents of Daly City their sincere wish for a very happy and fire-free new year.

This being the first of a new year it is our hope that you will take this opportunity to eliminate all fire hazards from your home or business establishment.

Few Realize

Few people realize that somewhere in North America a needless fire breaks out every two second—right around the clock.

You may think,. "It can only happen to someone else, such a tragedy will not effect me."

Every fire, whether it consumes a whole city or only the roof or other portion of an individual house, has to be paid for. A burned house does not replace itself. Food, clothing and shelter are produced only by human effort. Every fire makes every man's struggle for a living harder, by compelling him to spend for his neighbor's waste what he might otherwise spend for his own comfort.

Everyone Pays

The man in the street—the ordinary man—does not know how this fire waste is paid. You may not realize that when you buy a hat, or a pair of shoes or a suit of clothes, or anything which goes through the regular channels of living—you pay this tax.

Ask yourself the following questions:

1. Will you be one of the more than 40,000 Americans who this year will die in flames or be disfigured for life by fire?

2. Will your home be one of the 775 which will be attacked by fire before the sun set today?

3. When your youngster goes to school tomorrow morning will his school be one of the eight that catch fire in this country daily?

4. Will that hospital where one of your loved ones may now be, be one of the three hospitals that fire daily seeks out for its special target?

Too Few Know

Strangely enough, the answer is largely up to you. You will have it in your power—individually and collectively as part of the community team—to prevent 90% of all fires. There is no mystery to fire. We know what causes it, we known why its happens and we know how to control it. The trouble is that this simple knowledge is not shared by enough people.

In The Past

TEN YEARS AGO IN THE RECORD

Thursday, Jan. 14—William J. Sweeney, Daly City's new city judge succeeding R. C. MacArthur, will take the bench at his first court session.

A pioneer resident of Daly City, Sweeney is proprietor of one of the community's oldest business firms, Bill's Garage, 6806 Mission street. He was appointed by the city council at their regular meeting Monday night. The appointment was preceded by the resignation of R. C. MacArthur, who has taken up the duties of county tax collector.

Daly City police broke a San Francisco robbery case shortly before noon Monday when Walter Smith, USN, confessed to Police Chief James G. Reardon that he had stolen a case of whiskey from a liquor store in San Francisco's Oceanview district.

The seaman, with a companion, has been held since Sunday morning by local police and both were turned over to Inspector Ed Paul of the San Francisco robbery detail.

All Daly City mourned the loss of one of her most beloved citizens this week with the death of Judge Wade H. Clay Monday morning at his home, 79 Guadalupe street.

A resident of Daly City for the past seventeen years, Judge Clay was 75 years old at the time of his death. A quiet unassuming man, Judge Clay had all the dignity of his profession, yet was possessed with traits of friendliness and good fellowship that won for him many friends. While he was known to be stern in carrying out his judicial duties, Judge Clay had a keen understanding in dealing with the thousands who appeared before his justice court.

FIFTEEN YEARS AGO IN THE RECORD

Friday, Jan. 14—Six girls of Girl Scout Troop No. 2 received their Second Class badges: one girl received the honor of Tenderfoot Scout and one girl was welcomed into Troop 2 through transfer during the Court of Awards which was held by the members of Troop 2 Saturday evening.

The six girls who received their Second Class badges were: Mary Hill, Martha Preciado, Joyce Lemon, Betty Inks, Rose Siragusa and Alice Forest. Wilda Heath was the girl accepted into the troop through transfer and Patsy Lloyd, 103 Capitol avenue, San Francisco, was the one who had passed her Tenderfoot tests successfully and received her Girl Scout pin.

DRIVER OF MONTH IS NAMED BY RAILWAY

Elmer Merrill, three times runner-up for the award, is the 28th winner of the Municipal Railway's "Muni Man of the Month" contest.

The 33-year-old operator is well known to patrons of the No. 55 line many of whom have written in commending him for his friendliness, courtesy and safe driving.

Merrill is a World War II Army veteran and has been employed by the Railway since May 5, 1947. During this period he has received the National Safety Council's "Two Year Safe Driver Award." He is married and has three children—two girls, ages 6 and 4, and a baby son 15 months old. His hobby is woodcraft and he spends a great deal of his spare time making ornamental knick-knacks for his home at 2215 38th avenue.

A committee of prominent residents to take charge of ticket sales in Daly City for the annual President's Birthday ball to be held January 29 at Tanforan clubhouse, San Bruno, was appointed this week by Mayor Paul Selmi.

Named to the committee were Mrs. Horace Fellows, Mrs. Ann Eason, A. G. K. Jakobsen, Councilman Julius Twesten, Jack Cosbie and Police Chief James Reardon.

Congratulations are being extended to Mr. and Mrs. James J. Dorrance of Irvington street on the arrival of a daughter in Franklin hospital, San Francisco, Friday of last week. Mrs. Dorrance was formerly Nell Van Huesden and she and her daughter, Diane Lynne, are doing nicely.

TWENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO IN THE RECORD

Friday, Jan. 13—The monthly meeting of the Veteran Firemen's association was held on Jan. 6 at Company No. 2 firehouse. The meeting was well attended and business of great importance was transacted.

Under the head of new business the newly elected officers were installed by Comrade Charles M. Shoup. The following are the officers of the association for the ensuing year: Larry Shaw, president; Julius Twesten, vice-president; Andrew Vireno, second vice-president; Ed Ford, secretary; Alfred Roamer, treasurer; Arthur Rickman, marshall. The board of directors are Arthur Bodien, J. J. Kennedy, Thomas Moran, H. F. Tecar and W. F. Schmidt.

A meeting of the city council was held Monday evening, with Mayor H. H. Smith presiding, all councilmen and the city engineer being present.

Several protests on weed assessments were presented in writing to the council, and were referred to the street committee.

The council reported applying for mail service to Vale street, the new city line of Daly City near Colma, and instructed the city clerk to write the postmaster, asking for the service. As the postal department requires several improvements in delivery districts, a request from the council will open an investigation.

Mrs. Earl Abbott, of 630 Bellevue avenue, was tendered a surprise party last Friday afternoon in honor of the twenty-fifth anniversary of her wedding.

Those present were: Mrs. Ed Wallace, Mrs. S. Eeldrup, Mrs. M. Fahey, Mrs. C. Anderson, Mrs. William Cullen, Mrs. W. Peiman, Mrs. George Cofer, Mrs. E. H. Jordan, Mrs. A. Stewart, Mrs. A. Sickols, Miss E. Abbott, Miss E. Chaney.

ART OF FENDER REPAIR

Dented or rangled fenders often are allowed to remain permanently merely because the car owner does not know that fender repairing has progressed reports National Automobile Club. The body repair shop can make them look like new. Use of a quick drying lacquer makes the job a speedy one, too.

California has more voting precincts that any other state.

"New Horizons for the Blind" is the title of the film to be shown at the next regular meeting of Sheridan PTA at 1 p.m., Jan. 20, in the auditorium of the school. Mrs. Louis Fertin, Exceptional Child Chairman of Second District, CCPT, will speak on the problems of the visually handicapped child. A discussion period will follow.

Election of the nominating committee will take place during the business meeting. Also at this time, Mrs. J. F. Harrop, president, will ask for volunteers for the Mothers' March on Polio to take place on the night of February 3.

Refreshments will be served following adjournment by Mrs. Paul Rau, hospitality chairman.

SAN MATEO JC OFFERS "LO AND BEHOLD"

San Mateo Junior College Players' Club production of the riotous new comedy "Lo and Behold," will be staged Jan. 16 and 17 in the Junior college auditorium.

Written by John Patrick, "Lo and Behold" follows two eminent successes by the same author, "The Hasty Heart" and "The Curios Savage." Hilarious lines and clever situations assure "Lo and Behold" of continued popularity in college and community theatres.

The leading role, Milo Alcott, a character part, is played by Jean Wellington; the romantic leads by Marilyn Wynne and Ned Smith. Supporting roles are carried by Paul Honore, Shirley Ashley, Jan Aylor, Ray Coloma, and Bill Jackson. Fortunately cast, the play promises in its local production to be fast-paced and vastly amusing.

"Lo and Behold" will be staged in the Baldwin auditorium in San Mateo and tickets may be purchased at the door. Melvin Ellett, faculty instructor of speech and drama courses at the Junior College, is the director of the play.

The Mission variety of olives, planted by Franciscan missionaries in California nearly 200 years ago, are today one of the most popular varieties used in canning.

Confabs are scheduled to be held the week of February 12-19. Ingersoll will attend the conference of trustees.

MOTORISTS SHOULD KNOW:

The faster the pace, the greater the distance should be between your car and the car ahead, states National Automobile Club. More time must be allowed to stop.

Moving traffic has the right of way over a machine pulling out of a parking space.

It is far better driving to shift into second when climbing a hill than to strain the car by remaining in high.

Turns should never be made in the middle of a block when it requires backing. Most cities have a law against it.

ACCURATE SIGNALING

Driving is dangerous when it becomes a guessing game, warns the California State Automobile Association. You should always signal your intentions to other drivers, and make sure your signals are correct.

COUNTY HAS MORE, BETTER TEACHERS TORMEY ANNOUNCES

More and better teachers in the schools of San Mateo County were highlighted in the report on teachers currently employed in San Mateo county as released by County Superintendent of Schools James R. Tormey.

A total of 2,238 school teachers were regularly employed in the schools of the county near the end of 1952, an increase of 12.7 per cent over the total of 1,984 for a comparable date in 1951.

In 1951, 100 teachers with emergency credentials were employed as against 53 in the current school year, a decrease of 47 per cent.

Tormey attributed the decrease in teachers with sub-standard credentials in part to the action of the San Mateo County Board of Education in requiring evidence of summer school or other training by emergency credential teachers in order to secure renewal of credentials.

TO STOP HORN BLOWING

A quick way out of the embarrassment of having the horn start blowing continuously in traffic due either to a short circuit or a jammed horn button is cited by National Automobile Club. It involves simply removing one of the wires leading to the horn. It makes no difference which wire, either one breaks the circuit and silences the horn.

Don't drive and sightsee cautions the National Automobile Club. Park then look.

DR. KOKJER SPEAKS TO WESTLAKE PTA ON IMPORTANCE OF HOME TRAINING

Mrs. Howard A. Dunbar, president of the Westlake PTA, presented Dr. Ruth Kokjer, psychologist in the San Mateo county school department as the speaker at the first meeting of the new year which was held in the Kindergarten room of the school last Thursday evening, January 8. Dr. Kokjer's talk was based on the month's theme "Home Training Determines Attitude Toward School, Community and the World."

Determine Attitudes

Dr. Kokjer concluded that qualities parents have will determine their children's attitudes because children learn through everyday behavior of their parents rather than what they say. We need to aim for such qualities as tolerance, mutual respect, faith or trust and loyalty, she said. At the conclusion of Dr. Kokjer's talk there was an interesting discussion period.

Approve TV Set

The recommendation of the executive board to purchase a television set to be place in the new multi-purpose room was approved by the unit. A Valentine canasta party will be held on February 11 to help raise the money for the television set. Mrs. Edward Molkenbuhr Jr. will be chairman and plans for 50 tables of canasta. The party will be held in the two kindergarten rooms at the school. Watch this column for further details on the party.

The association voted $25 from the welfare fund to be given the Jefferson school district milk fund.

Auditor's Report

Mrs. Dunbar read the Auditor's report in the absence of Mrs. Francis Gates. Mrs. Dunbar also read a note from the principal, Mrs. Zenovich asking that parents in the vicinity of the school accept small groups of children into their homes to view the inauguration on television. Parents have been asked to call the school if they can accomodate any youngsters.

It was announced that $71.53 was the profit on the Christmas canasta party.

First Aid Class

Mrs. Irvin Silberstein reported the First Aid Class would hold its first meeting Wednesday evening, Feb. 4, in Room 12 at the Westlake school. Mr. Crane will be the instructor. Those attending should bring 60 cents to purchase a first aid book.

Mrs. Silberstein also stated that the Mothers' March of Dimes would take place Tuesday evening, Feb. 3. No one is immune to this terrible disease and we must all participate in this drive; every bit of help is needed.

The latest membership count is 392, according to Mrs. Sol Lieberman, membership chairman. It is expected that our goal of 400 will soon be reached.

$35 in Cake Sale

all those who participated in the Mrs. Sanford Schoenfeld thanked all those who participated in the December cake sale. $35 was realized. She asked that those who wished to serve as room mothers get in touch with her. Mrs. Schoenfeld thanked the following fourth grade mothers who helped so much in arranging for the social hour following the meeting: Mrs. Walter Martinelli, Mrs. John Peebles, Mrs. John Dennis, Mrs. George Martinez, and Mrs. George Shimozy.

When the multi-purpose room is completed the PTA plans to do bookbinding. The unit will collect books for the children in grades to the fourth; save all those that your youngsters have no further use for. A collection date will be announced later.

Weibel Speaks

H. Z. Weibel, superintendent of schools, discussed the bond issue which will be brought before the voters on February 5. He explained that in order to get part of the money available to school districts from the state bonds voted in November we must bond ourselves to the maximum capacity. Because of increased valuation the district has bonding power again. He urged that it is important for the measure to pass if we are to improve our educational facilities.

Miss Furch's A. M. Kindergarten class won the aquarium for the month having the most parents in attendance at the meeting.

Mrs. Dunbar presented Mrs. Nagy, president of Hillside PTA, at the Colma school.

Reference List Of GI Benefits Issued By U. S. Government

A reference list of the benefits provided by the Federal Government to surviving dependents of servicemen who have died in the Korean conflict was issued today by Floyd D. Granger, Veterans Service Officer of San Mateo county, with the suggestion that it be checked for benefits not yet applied for or received.

Many of the benefits are automatically issued to eligible survivors of Korea servicemen, Granger said, but some are occasionally overlooked and others must be applied for by the next of kin.

In all cases, the service officer asked, assistance and further information is available at the Veterans Service Office, 517 Marshall street, Redwood City (directly in back of the Courthouse.)

Granger listed these among the principal benefits provided for surviving dependents of Korea servicemen:

Monthly compensation for widows and children, and monthly pension payments for parents who were dependent on the serviceman.

A lump-sum gratuity, equal to the serviceman's pay for six months, and payable to the next of kin; also, all accrued pay and allowances credited to the serviceman at the time of his death.

Government life insurance or indemnity benefits of $10,000, payable according to the type of coverage carried by the serviceman.

Federal old-age and survivors benefits, which may be credited to the serviceman even if he was not covered by social security in his pre-service employment. Granger explained that social security credits are now awarded to servicemen for all their time in the armed forces since September 16, 1940.

Ten points preference for widows and widowed mothers who apply for U. S. civil service employment.

Woodrow PTA Plans For Recipe Sale

PARENT EDUCATION IS THEME FOR NEXT MEET

Woodrow Wilson PTA is currently planning a sale of recipe books to be held in the near future.

Recipes are donated by all the mothers and teachers at the school.

According to PTA officials, the project is an urgent one to gain much-needed money for the group.

The next regular monthly meeting will be held Tuesday at 1:15 p.m. at the school.

Feature for that meeting is "Parent Education."

Showing of the educational play, "Fresh and Variable Winds," will take place. The drama, written by Nora Sterling, will be presented by five Jefferson high school students under the direction of their dramatic teacher, Eunice Seaton.

Characters in the half-hour play are the father, two ten-year-old children, one of whom is spoiled and mischievous, an elderly aunt and the girls' mother.

Members of the PTA have been asked to show their appreciation to the players from Jefferson by attending the meeting and viewing the production.

The play features problems of the school age child as well as needs of the child in relation to his parents.

Following the play there will be a discussion period held among the audience.

Refreshments will be served by the room mothers and the hospitality chairman, Mrs. O. Simonsen.

Members may bring a friend to the play, which will be held in Room 10 at the school.

Colma PTA Supports Annual Polio Efforts

The Colma PTA is backing the Annual Infantile Paralysis March of Dimes program very actively. It is loaning its president, Mrs. Sanford Vickers, as over-all chairman of the Daly City-Colma area, while Mrs. Roy Foster and Mrs. Joseph Doyle, vice-president and corresponding secretary of the unit respectively, are co-chairmen. Since the planned Mothers March falls on its scheduled meeting date, that date has been changed. Colma PTA will celebrate its Founders Day one week later instead, on Tuesday evening, February 10, at the R. S. Thornton school.

School Nurse Speaks

Antoinette Gattuccio, Jefferson Elementary District School Nurse, was the principal speaker at the recent Colma PTA meeting. She explained the Health program as carried out in our district. She stressed the fact that any such program must have the support of the parents, as well as the teachers, to be successful. She gave the teachers much credit for their willing cooperation with her department. Miss Gattuccio pointed out that a good health program is not something which is in force just during the short time a child is in school. It must be in force at home, while the child is playing, eating, and sleeping—a 24-hour program.

Important Committees

Two very important committees were elected at this January meeting. The Life Membership committee, which will elect some one to receive an Honorary Life Membership at the Founders Day meeting next month, is composed of Mrs. Edward Dennis, Mrs. Roy Foster and Mrs. R. E. Brandon. The Nominating committee, elected by the members, has the following women serving on it: the Mesdames G. C. Christiano, Joseph Doyle, G. E. Hillman, H. F. Sillick, and John C. Wiesner, chairman. It will report at the annual meeting in March.

Accepted with Regret

The resignation of Mrs. J. D. Hopper as publicity chairman was accepted by the unit with regret. The president appointed Mrs. John C. Wiesner as chairman pro-tem. Mrs. Hopper has recently moved to her new home in South San Francisco; the Colma PTA and this community as well, will miss Mrs. Hopper and her family a very great deal, but wish them success in their new surroundings.

At the close of the meeting Mrs. Angelo Tuvo and her committee served delicious home-made cakes, tea, and coffee.

The Colma PTA was well represented at the 17th district meeting and publicity luncheon held in San Mateo at The Chukker on Thursday, Jan. 15. The following were in attendance: Mesdames Gene Andrus, Roy Foster, J. D. Hopper, Claude Newman and Sanford Vickers.

The next Executive Board meeting will be held Jan. 27 at the R. S. Thornton school at 1:30 p.m. All members are requested to be present.

Legion Auxiliary To Seek One Million Women During 1953

Enrollment of one million women for partiotic service will be the goal of the American Legion Auxiliary for 1953, Mrs. Erma Magnuson, president of Daly City unit of the auxiliary, has announced. Already the largest women's patriotic organization in the world, the Auxiliary is seeking increased strength for greater service during the year ahead, Mrs. Magnuson said.

The Daly City unit already has begun re-enrollment of present members and enrollment of new members for the coming year. A large committee, headed by Mrs. Thelma Hamilton, membership chairman, is extending invitations to come into the Auxiliary to all eligible women in the city. Eligible for membership are wives, mothers, sisters and daughters of American Legion members, those of persons who died in service during the World Wars or Korean conflict, and those of deceased war veterans, as well as women who themselves served with the armed forces in any of the three wars.

"Increased need for the services the American Legion Auxiliary gives makes it necessary that we enlarge our membership," said Mrs. Hamilton. "The Korean War is adding thousands to the already long list of disabled veterans whom the Auxiliary serves. Families of the dead and disabled, especially the needy children, are another growing responsibility of the Legion and Auxiliary. We feel too, that we must expand our constructive American activities, which promote loyal patriotic citizenship, to help strengthen America against the menace of world communism.

"Interesting, worthwhile activities await all eligible women in our Unit of the Auxiliary. During the coming year we will work side by side with our American Legion Post to carry out locally the full program of the Legion and Auxiliary."

Colma Vista Grande Auxiliary Will Again Host State Officers

The Colma Vista Grande Auxiliary No. 1848, F.O.E., will again be the hostesses of the state officers of California at a bay area affair in the Eagles hall, 3346 San Jose avenue, on Tuesday evening, January 27.

South San Francisco, Golden Gate No. 61 and San Bruno auxiliaries will assist in the event.

Madam State President Margaret Wetherall will make her official visit to the four auxiliaries.

Their local president, Dolores Warren, will lead a demonstration of initiatory work with her officers of the year.

Plans are being made for a large crowd of visiting auxiliaries throughout the bay area.

At the last meeting announcements were made for the regular visit Jan. 21 to the veterans at Letterman hospital.

Those that will be able to donate cookies to the Auxiliary were asked to contact Chairman Leonora O'Niell, PLaza 5-0468, or the madam president, Dolores Warren, PLaza 5-3658.

The monthly whist will be held Tuesday evening, Jan. 20, and chairman Marge Lynch hopes for a large attendance. The whist will be held at the usual location, Eagles hall, Daly City.

Lake Merced Holds Initiation Meeting

Initiation of three new members highlighted the regular business meeting of the Lake Merced Auxiliary held Tuesday at the Broadmoor community center.

Those formally inducted into the organization were: Edith Solbakken, Agnes Sirianni, and Ruth Tobin. A short recess was held to welcome the new members.

Word was received by the Auxiliary from one of their past presidents, Gladys Holt, who informed them that she had been transferred to the Woodside chapter of the organization. All the members wished her good luck in the community.

The Lake Merced group is planning a rummage sale to be held Jan. 26, 27 and 28 on Webster street.

The Auxiliary has appealed to all who have un-needed items to contact them. Anything from books to old clothes will be welcomed, according to the Auxiliary. Numbers to call are: Plaza 5-3378, Plaza 5-0697 and Plaza 5-4267. The auxiliary will call for items if asked.

An apron sale is scheduled for February, with Hazel Eagleton to be in charge.

All members of the Auxiliary extended their wishes for a speedy recovery to one of the group who was stricken with polio recently.

Folk Dancing Class Begins in Daly City

A folk dancing class, sponsored by the adult education department of San Mateo Junior college, held its initial gathering this week at the Westlake school, Westlake and Fieldcrest avenue.

A folk dancing instructor from the college faculty, Elmer Harris, is in charge of the class, which is scheduled to meet every Tuesday at 8 p.m. during the regular college year.

Harris said the group will eventually form a club and hold dancing parties once or twice a month in addition to the regular classes.

Programs will consist of all types of folk and international dancing, as well as some spanish dances.

Those attending should wear sports clothes.

Registration fee for the class is 50 cents, covering the entire year.

FINER DRIVING ESSENTIAL

Today's scarcity of parking space calls for finer driving, states National Automobile Club. If the driving is not of this character, front wheels are likely to be jammed against the curb when entering a space. Much wheel misalignment is due to slovenly parking practices.

GIRL SCOUT TROOP 2 NAMES NEW OFFICERS

Girl Scout Troop 2 met at the home of Mrs. Angie Thur recently and plans were discussed for the coming year.

Officers were also elected for the year to come. Those elected were: Beverly Cohn, patrol leader; Johanna Hedvall, assistant patrol leader; Phyllis Thur, treasurer; and Ann Cheatham, secretary.

The troop held a New Year's party at the home of Mrs. Arthur Hedvall and there was a large crowd in attendance.

General Pershing PTA See Play Jan. 6

What kind of parent are you? Relaxed? Strict? Nervous?

A play, "Scattered Showers," was presented at the General Pershing PTA meeting on the night of January 6, and was concerned with three mothers and their pre-school youngsters.

One mother was strict and domineering, one was striving too hard for perfection and as a consequence was high strung and nervous. The third mother was more natural and clam, interested in her child as an individual.

Reminiscent Chuckle

The little everyday crises that arose brought many a reminiscent chuckle from the audience.

However, when the play was over, most of the audience was left wondering "Which kind of parent am I?"

Mrs. Janice Robison, dean of girls at Capuchino high school, led a discussion to bring out the significance of each mother's reaction in the play and also audience reaction and opinions.

Of vital interest to all parents of grade school children in the school district was a talk on the bond election on February 5.

Bond To Maximum

Fred Schweickhardt, campaign chairman of the citizens' committee for better schools, stated that it is necessary to bond the district to its legal maximum in order to obtain state aid funds which are so desperately needed.

H. Z. Weibel ,district superintendent, answered many questions that arose. He said schools to be built in the new developments will provide classrooms for pupils from those areas and they will no longer have to go to the schools in the older parts of Daly City, thus eliminating double sessions.

Music In The Home

Mrs. Harvey Smith, music chairman, gave an interesting talk on the importance of music in the home. She pointed out that perfection of tone in the young child was not nearly so important as his enjoyment of singing, and that singing and enjoyment of music brings the family unit closer together through the shared activity.

There are seven tunnels through the Allegheny Mountains on the Pennsylvania Turnpike.

PTAs ASKED TO URGE ECONOMY IN USE OF MONEY

Parent-Teacher Assns. throughout the state are being asked to urge local school boards to use the greatest of care in the use of money from Proposition No. 2.

Congress membership is reminded that this is what the legislators were promised at the special session when these bonds were voted for emergency buildings.

"This is the time for all possible economy," states Mrs. P. D. Bevil of Sacramento, Congress president, in her message to board members who will meet January 14 and 15 in San Francisco to study the new school apportionment bill which will allocate funds voted in the November election.

In line with this platform, it is not anticipated that any new services will be either requested or supported by the Congress board.

"Educators and school boards," said Mrs. Bevil, "share the concern to have basic needs met as rapidly as possible and in line with the safety of children and good educational procedures; but they are urgently in need of community support to aid and encourage them in economy planning."

Illustrations of economy buildings are being made available to local PTAs for study.

The Holy Angels Mother's Club and Altar Society groups have announced their first meeting of the year was a wonderful success. Planned events of the year are: A luncheon-whist party to be held February 11. Tickets will be available at the next meeting, January 28. A cake sale is scheduled for the near future, and Mrs. Toboni was elected chairman of the committee for a Tea and Fashion Show as a Post Lenten event.

Mrs. Catherine Kahle, chairman of the Mothers club, announced several projects for the school. They will be mimeographed and sent home with the children. It is important that these projects be completed as quickly as possible, the Rev. Mother said.

Mrs. Lillian Reardon, president, adjourned the meeting to the last Wednesday of the month, Jan. 28. Refreshments will be served by the second grade mothers.

PTA Organizes Annual "March of Mothers" Drive for Polio Funds

Sheridan PTA is organizing its annual "March of Mothers" campaign to aid the polio drive. For one hour, between 7 and 8 p.m., on the night of February 3, the mothers will march through the entire district to gather contributions to a great cause: the fight against polio. The lighted porch or entrace will beckon them to the homes that are ready to contribute. All PTA units in the city are participating in the mothers' march and it is important that every block be covered. WAY TO SPOIL A TRIP

Back seat driving is simply one form of bickering, and nothing is less conducive to an enjoyable trip, according to the National Automobile Club. It is unpleasant as well as distinctly dangerous at any time, but it is particularly obnoxious on a long trip ostensibly entered upon for pleasure and relaxation.

Helping celebrate were: Hale and Nancy Prather, Lynn Anderson, Barbara Jean Sunderman, Joey and Cynthia Hopper, Erva and Mary Elizabeth Denham, Billy Burns, Billy Dutchins, and Chuck Newman. Games, TV and refreshments were the order of the day.

Mrs. M. P. Brown entertained Mrs. Ellen Adams and Mrs. Laverne Helon for a three day visit. Both are from Los Angeles. A dinner party in honor of her guests was served Sunday. Visitors for dinner included: Mr. and Mrs. Philip Breck, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Seiveirt, Mrs. Marjorie Breck and Mrs. M. Knowles.

And our notes would not be complete without the neighborhood Canasta club which met at the home of Mary Contreras on Friday. Amparo Arejula, Irene Parks, Fleeta Lagoria, Betty Arthur, Doris Monery, Pearl Harris and Sheila Mahoney were all present and accounted for.

The inkwell has gone dry. See you again next week.

Jeffs Rout Half Moon Bay

MEET STRONG SAN MATEO SQUAD TONIGHT; FACE BURLINGAME TUESDAY

Scoring at their leisure, the Jefferson Indians smothered Half Moon Bay, 66-40, in their initial league encounter Tuesday.

Leading 44-18 at holf-time, the Indian first team retired to the bench for the entire second half, while the substitutes continued to pour on the steam.

Forward Larry Blanchard paced the Jeffs with 10 field goals and one free throw for a total of 21 points. Center Wayne Lovelace and Forward Don Delbon were runners-up in the scoring department with 11 points apiece.

Coach Mike Orlich got a chance to test his reserve strength as a total of 11 men saw action in the contest.

Showing up well were John Madden, on the rebounds, Wally Honeywell on defense, and John Madden on his playmaking.

Orlich said that the Half Moon Bay outfit was one of the weakest in the league and therefore it was difficult to gage his team's performance in future games. "However," he said, "we could have run up 100 points against them."

The Jefferson Indians go up against a tough San Mateo team tonight at 7:30 for their second league contest.

Roughest hurdle, however, will be Tuesday's contest here against Burlingame at 3:15 p.m. with the varsity game scheduled first. Burlingame's chief threat lies in 6' 9" center Charley Bogle, who averages from 20 to 25 points a game. Orlich plans to pit Wayne Lovelace against him on defense.

Friday the Indians will meet Capuchino here at 7:30 p.m.

Frank Thur's performance equalled that of the surprising Hilltop Market aggregation, as he bowled a 249 game, 27 pins better than the best effort all season. Thurs, who bowls for Thur Meat Co., had a series of 545.

Misses Honor

Joe Riley, who rolls for Kirchhubels, was robbed of the high-game honor as he hit 243, which would have been high for the league this season except for Thur's efforts.

Riley had a 585 series, second high in that category for the evening. Paul's Flowers Romie Roggio claimed high series honors with 589.

High team series and game were won by Hilltop cab with 2580 and 947, respectively.

Central Club couldn't muster the strength to edge out the undaunted Market team, despite the return to their roster of Babe DeLuca, who formerly held the high game record, 222, and was the team's leading kegler.

DeLuca, in his first appearance with the team since he suffered an injured wrist and came down with pneumonia almost simultaneously, rolled a 546 series.

Yo-Yo Contest Starts This Week; Awards Will Go to Winners, Runners-up in Local Contest

The Daly City yo-yo contest, sponsored by the recreation department, enters preliminary stages this week with a few changes in the originally announced program.

Recreation Director James Mason, who is conducting the activity, said practicing will begin this week and the contest will be carried over a period of three weeks.

Competition will be held at Marchbanks, Edgewood and Lincoln parks. A first, second and third place award will be given at each playground each week. These three winners will be eliminated from competition the following week, or weeks, but should be present for the playground championship the third week, which will include the three winners from each weekly contest, making nine contestants, in all, for the playground finals.

The contest will begin on the three playgrounds January 24. Those who wish to compete for a chance to represent Daly City in the state finals will receive all the necessary information and assistance from their playground leaders. Westlake and Broadmoor children will compete at Marchbanks. The winners will compete in the community center for the local championship.

The boy and girl champion of each playground will then advance to the city finals. City champion will go to the district contest. Out of the eight district contests, forty will advance to the state finals, to be held in Berkeley March 14.

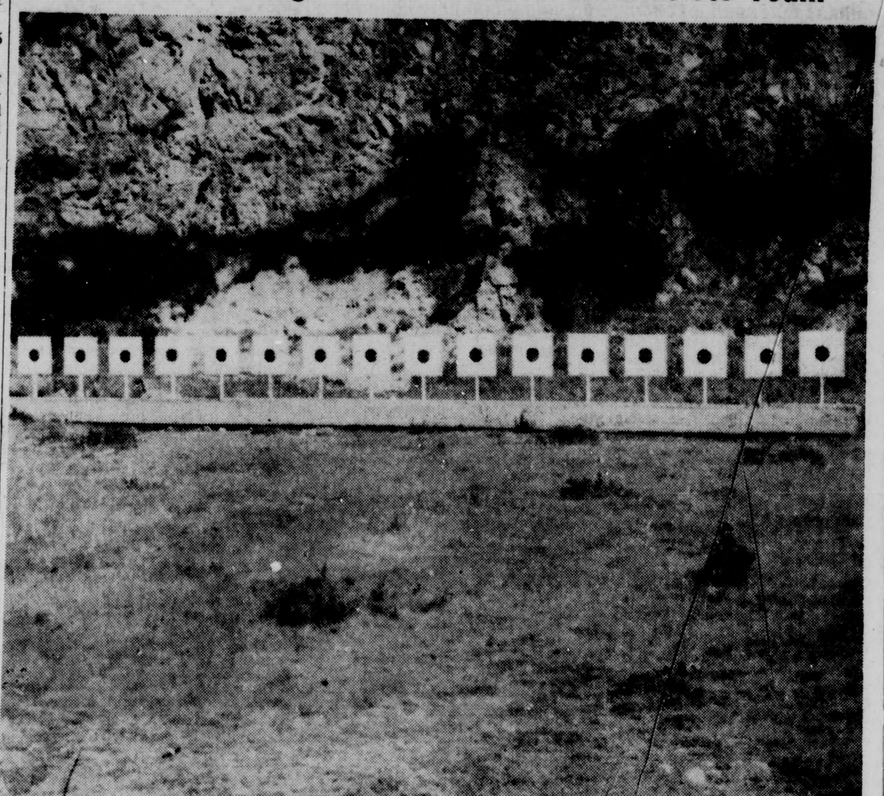
Prizes for the playground weekly contests are: first place, gold award; second place, expert award; third place, skill award.

Playground champions will be awarded a 100 per cent wool sweater with a gold star shield, while the city champion will receive a chenille "Champion" emblem. Runner-up will be given a jumbo yo-yo.

Pistol Marksman Examines One of Guns in Varied Collection

MIDST the marvelous array of pistols, rifles and other accoutrements of his hobby, Raymond Ottoboni of Colma examines the first weapon he ever owned. The nurseryman has, since 1933, won more than 400 medals and cups for his skill with the pistol, and has been acclaimed as one of the Nation's outstanding marksmen.

Ottoboni Pistol Range Will Be Practice Grounds for Team



PISTOL RANGE owned by Raymond Ottoboni will be practice grounds for county police and sheriff's pistol team. Police departments of several cities have already gone along with the plan for a county-wide team. First meet is scheduled to be held in Oakland some time in March.

OTTOBONI ORGANIZES

County Pistol Team Gets Underway Soon

Newest undertaking of Raymond Ottoboni, whose activities have been as varied as his collection of pistols and rifles, is the formation of a county-wide police pistol team.

And the police coudn't ask for anyone more well-versed in the science of pistol firing than the Colma nurseryman.

Ottoboni, who has been a Colma councilman for the past three years, a commissioner of the Colma police, a deputy sheriff of San Mateo county, head of the sheriff's pistol team, and a deputy fish and game warden for 16 years, is probably the county's most qualified authority on small arms.

Already Underway

His project to form the pistol team is already underway, with officers from Daly City, San Bruno, Colma, South San Francisco and Millbrae already expressing a desire to be included in the program.

Ottoboni's purpose in leading the way for such a team, besides his long-entrenched enthusiasm for pistol shooting, is to "encourage police to become more proficient in use of firearms."

He said that officers adept in the use of arms would be better able to protect lives and property, adding that accurate shooting might save lives of innocent bystanders in cases where it is necessary for police to fire in crowded areas.

First Shoot

First shoot for the county pistol team is scheduled to be held in Oakland in March, with fire and police department teams from Alameda, Richmond, Oakland and Berkeley competing, Ottoboni said.

Practice sessions won't pose any problem as Ottoboni has his own firing range in Colma.

Born and raised in Colma, Ottoboni grew up around guns and enjoyed hunting as a boy.

His position as game warden led to his now ardent enthusiasm for guns and shooting. In 1933 he won his first trophy and later was to become one of the outstanding pistol marksmen in the nation.

Plenty Testimony

In a small room located adjacent to his nursery can be seen ample testimony of his ability. More than 400 medals, loving cups and trophies festoon the walls of his small "workshop."

He'd undoubtedly possess hundreds more if it weren't for his nursery work, which has kept him from attending many meets.

But any visitor to Ottoboni's "arsenal" would probably be even more impressed by his selection of firearms, ranging from cap and ball pistols to the most modern sidearm weapons yet devised, with a liberal assortment of rifles thrown in.

Any gun enthusiast would be even more amazed, after viewing the envy-provoking array of more than 100 pistols and rifles, to hear Ottoboni explain that he keeps many more of his guns in the house, where they'll be more safe.

In Readiness

One of the weapons he keeps in the house, always in readiness, is a sawed-off shotgun, which he likes to have around as a persuader in the event thieves might become covetous of his cache of guns.

And a look at a target Ottoboni has set up near the house, with shell marks confined to a diameter of not more than seven inches, would indicate that any prowlers to the Ottoboni residence would be unwary indeed.

Outstanding Fete

One of Ottoboni's more outstanding fetes in the world of pistol accuracy was the scoring of 297 points out of a possible 300 in a meet. At that time the world record, held by J. Wheeler, was 299.

In 1936 he won first place in the bay area competition of the United States Revolver association, while shooting for the Pacific Revolver club.

Fetes of this types being so numerous for Ottoboni, he has difficulty recalling some of his best efforts, but pistol fans the country over, and nearly half-a-thousand medals and trophies, can offer enough evidence of his skill.

Whoops -- First Place Team Trounced By Cellar-Dwellers in Bowling League

All pandemonium broke loose at this week's session of the Daly City-Colma bowling league as the cellar-dwellers knocked the league-leaders out of the first-place spot and a new high individual game was recorded for the season.

Hilltop Market, dawdling along on a 16½ win—28½ loss record, caught on fire Tuesday night and walloped Central Club three straight games, moving them out of the lead which they had held the entire season.

Hilltop Cab Leads

Central Club's inopportune loss put Hilltop Cab in undisputed first place, two games ahead of the former leaders. The Hilltoppers took two from Paul's Flowers.

Jefferson 30s Cop Half Moon Bay Tilt

Jefferson's 30s started off the season in good form Tuesday, by eking out a 32-28 win over the Half Moon Bay lights.

Forward Leo Villar led scoring for the locals with 13 points.

The Half Moon Bay squad led at half-time, 17-16, but the Indians forged to a 28-23 lead at the end of the third period.

With seconds to go in the last 30-28, an Indian player cinched the contest with a two-pointer.

Coach Tony Giammona singled out the all-around play of Villar and Guard Lagomarsino for both offensive and defensive performance.

The local lightweights face an aggregation of some formidable stature tonight in a San Mateo team that rolled up 55 points in beating South San Francisco.

Scheduled to start tonight are: Hutchinson, Villar, forwards; Yarbourgh, center; Watson, Lagomarsino, forwards.

Gators Boast 10-1 Record; Journey To Fresno Next Week

San Francisco State's cagers, resting on a 10-1 record, will hit the books for the next ten days.

The Gators, who defeated Chico State twice over the week-end, journey to Fresno State on Friday and Saturday (Jan. 23 and 24) and then entertain San Jose State in the Lake Merced gymnasium on Wednesday, Jan. 28.

Coach Dan Farmer's crew will become a road team for the last half of the schedule. Only four of the remaining 12 games are scheduled at home.

Forward Charles Miller and Center Al Desin each scored 26 points against Chico. Miller retained his five point margin with 127 points in five games. Desin has 52 field goals and 18 free throws for a total of 122. Vic Gipson, who retained third place, had the best output against Chico, with 34 points in the two games. He naw has a total of 113.

The Gators expect a tough series against Fresno in the Bulldogs' gymnasium.

Front wheel skids usually are the result of turning the steering wheel too suddenly, reports the National Automobile Club. Twisting it quickly on a dry pavement and on a wet one is far different.

Driving is a full time job, reminds the National Automobile Club.

Ralph's Cleaners Take Spring Corp. Squad to Cleaners

Ralph's Cleaners, behind the unerring accuracy of Bob Lincoln, fashioned a 49-28 victory over Specialty Spring Corp of the B industrial league in Redwood City in a game played last Thursday night at that city.

Lincoln amassed a total of 25 points in the contest.

The Cleaners aggregation, entered in the B division of the county cage tournament to be held Jan. 25, was scheduled to hold another practice game last night.

James Mason, manager of the team, said his club has the potential to fiinsh high in the county tournament.

Others who scored in last week's contest were: Eugene Danwitz, 4; John Lucier, 2; Walt Thede, 8; Hank Rankin, 4; Mason, 6.

RAMS COP SECOND STRAIGHT GAME IN REC CONTEST

The OLPH Rams swept on to their second straight victory in the B division of the Recreation Department Basketball League last Saturday at Marchbanks Playground. The Rams defeated the Colma Mustangs 22-11 in a contest which was close in the first two periods but became a runaway in the final quarter. The halftime score was 11-10 in favor of the Rams. The Mustangs were able to sink only 1 point in the final periods while the Rams ran up 11 more to win the game easily.

Joe Stagnero, his brother Anthony, and John Fahey assisted Joe Murphy and Jackie Bautista in the second half scoring spree. Bob Steele was ball hawk on defense and a constant thorn in the side of the Mustangs.

The scheduled games in the A League were delayed because of wet grounds ,but a practice game was played in its place.

The Colma Browns played a make-up team of high school and grammar school boys and did reasonably well considering their lack of experience.

The make up team composed of OLPH lads and representatives from Jefferson Union high school defeated the Browns 23-17 in a game which stressed the fundamentals of basketball offense and defense.

Because of the rainy weather future games will be announced by the recreation supervisor on the Friday before the games.

Tuna Catch Levels

SAN FRANCISCO—When the final returns are in, California's 1952 commercial tuna season will have levelled off from its sharp upward trend of recent years, it is indicated by State Department of Fish and Game records.

Nearly 10,000 tons of tuna were landed at California ports during November, to make an 11-month total of 166,000 tons for the year, compared to the 1951 annual total of 168,000 tons and 193,000 tons for 1950. December receipts won't add much to the 1952 total.

"High inventories on tuna dealers' shelves and the competition of foreign tuna kept the California tuna fleet dormant for a considerable period during 1952," said Chief Richard S. Croker of the Department's marine fisheries branch.

The November mackerel catch aggregated 17,000 tons, of which less than 600 tons were Pacifics, the balance jacks. Anchovies totaled 5,800 tons. Statewide sardine landings for November were 764 tons—the lowest in the fishery's history.

One in Two

TERMINAL ISLAND — One school of fish was spotted for every two miles travelled by the State research vessel "Yellowfin" on its recent winter voyage in Baja California sardine waters.

The 113-foot floating oceanographic and fisheries laboratory, operated by the California Department of Fish and Game, covered 300 miles in its search for young sardines spawned in 1952.

A total of 334 schools of fish were seen, of which marine biolofists estimated 292 contained sardines, 67 achovies, 23 jack mackerel and 16 Pacific mackerel. Few schools of young sardines were encountered.

Up Tresspass Fine

COLUSA — Judge Claude D. Houchins of Colusa has set the price for trespassing on State pheasant cooperative hunting areas at $100. Fifteen San Francisco Bay area hunters who last November hunted illegally on the Grimes and Sartain areas have just fiinshed paying fines which total $1500.

Among those arrested for the offense by State fish and game wardens:

I. M. Craig, 2701 Jackson street; John A. Trero, 1759 Mason street; Erwin Lutz, 741 Green street; James O. Brown, 1621 McAllister street; John Q. Ellis, 715 Page street; all of San Francisco;

J. H. Schultz and James Troyer, 1202 Willow street, Martinez;

Steve Ban, Box 294; and John Sciortino, 2928 Edison street; San Jose;

Joe Mingora, Box 230, Livermore; L. S. Sciortino, Route 1, Saratoga;

Oren Omo, 4535 Taft street, James H. Hill, 7015 2nd street, Richmond;

L. R. Keebaugh, 5107 Grove street; Charles P. Sawyer, 855 52nd street; Oakland.

Banner Pigeon Season

SAN FRANCISCO—California's second pigeon hunting season which ended New Year's Eve was "probably the best in five years," according to Game Conservation Chief Ben Glading of the Department of Fish and Game.

Although not all reports are yet analyzed, an estimated 200,000 band-tails were taken in the second half of the State's split season, December 17 to Dec. 31. Shotgunners took 92,000 birds in the same period in 1951, 178,000 in 1950, and 88,000 in 1949.

State estimates are based on the results of an annual postal survey conducted among hunting license buyers.

Completely protected in California between 1913 and 1932, the band-tailed pigeon has come back to the point where more birds are taken here than in any other state

Land Range Improvements

SAN FRANCISCO — The California Department of Fish and Game has been complimented for its deer range improvement program by the California Wool Growers Association. At its recent annual convention in San Francisco, the Association passed a resolution commending the state agency and asking that Federal and State range improvement efforts be increased.

The highest bid will be determined by deducting the amount of the premium bid (if any) from the total amount of interest which the City would be required to pay from the date of said bonds to the respective maturity dates at the coupon rate or rates specified in the bid, and the award will be made on the basis of the lowest net interest cost to the City. The lowest net interest cost shall be computed between the dates aforesaid according to thirty-day month standard four decimal municipal bond interest tables. The purchaser must pay accrued interest from the date of the bonds to the date of delivery. The cost of printing the bonds will be borne by the City.

RIGHT OF REJECTION:

The City Council of the City of Daly City reserves the right, in its discretion, to reject any and all bids and to waive any irregularity or informality in any bid.

PROMPT AWARD:

The City Council of said City will take action awarding the bonds or rejecting all bids not later than 24 hours after the expiration of the time herein prescribed for the receipt of proposals; provided that the award may be made after the expiration of the specified time if the bidder shall not have given to the City Council notice in writing of the withdrawal of such proposal.

PROMPT DELIVERY:

Delivery of the bonds will be made to the successful bidder at the office of the Treasurer of the City of Daly City, as soon as the bonds can be prepared, which it is estimated will be about sixty (60) days from the sale thereof.

RIGHT OF CANCELLATION:

The successful bidder shall have the right, at his option, to cancel the contract of purchase if the City shall fail to tender the bonds for delivery within seventy (70) days from the date of sale thereof, and in such event the successful bidder shall be entitled to the return of the deposit accompanying his bid.

FORM OF BID:

All bids must be for not less than all of the bonds hereby offered for sale and for not less than the par value thereof and accrued interest to date of delivery. Such bids, together with bidder's check, must be enclosed in a sealed envelope addressed to the City Council of the City of Daly City, and endorsed "Proposal for City of Daly City Fire Protection Bonds of 1952."

BID CHECK:

With each bid must be submitted a certified check or cashier's check for $5,000, drawn on a bank or trust company, payable to the order of the Treasurer of the City of Daly City to secure said City from any loss resulting from the failure of the bidder to comply with the terms of his bid. In addition, bidders are requested (but not required) to supply an estimate of the total net interest cost to the City on the basis of their respective bids, which shall be considered as informative only and not binding on either the bidder or the City. LOOSENESS HAS LIMIT

A loose valve means more power than one that is tight, as most motorists believe, however the National Automobile Club points out that after a certain degree of freedom in valve action, looseness, too, reduces the power output.

Judge Bocci has agreed to sit in Daly City on Friday mornings to hear minor traffic cases. His first session here last Friday was relatively slow, with only about 10 cases being handled.

Daly City Resident Muni Court Chief Clerk

CHIEF CLERK for the new municipal court in South San Francisco is Richard R. Liberty, 68 Flournoy street. Liberty was formerly with Judge Thomas L. Boci's law offices here.

Shubeck in Largest Training Exercise

AT SEA, Jan. 6 (FHTNC) — Participating in the largest training exercise held by the Pacific Fleet since World War II, aboard the light cruiser USS Manchester, is John L. Shubeck, storekeeper third class, USN, son of Mrs. Laura D. Johnson of 56 Woodrow street, Daly City.

The vessal is a unit of the 26-ship task force, composed of cruisers, destroyers, destroyer escorts, submarines and service support ships. They are shooting at surface and air targets; repelling simulated enemy submarine and air attacks; exercising at replenishing and refueling underway; and executing intricate battle maneuvers.

The ships left from West Coast ports last week. The two-week operation was broken by a visit to San Francisco Jan. 10 and 11.

Rear Admiral Herbert G. Hopwood, USN, is in command of the exercise.

HOME LOOTED OF TV, RADIO, WATCH

The home of Edward J. Holdener, 480 Hanover, was broken into last Friday and looted of a television set, a portable radio and a wrist watch.

Holdener said he and his wife left their home at 7 p.m. and returned about 10 p.m. to find the side door of the garage ajar and the dresser drawers thoroughly ransacked.

Police say the burglar apparently opened the garage door to facilitate removal of the television set.

The set was taken from the living room, while the watch and the radio were stolen from the rear bedroom.

San Francisco's War Memorial House is municipally owned and operated.

Etchings, Aquatints, Prints Displayed At Local Library

By Lorraine De Fanti

The collection of etchings, soft ground aquatints and block prints now on exhibition at the Daly City public library were loaned by the San Mateo county free library for a few weeks. These are pictures that go on tour from the Print Makers Society in Pasadena, where famous artists deposit their prints.

A box of these pictures is sent yearly on circuit around California and Nevada, where artists and the appreciating public may view them.

This collection includes a very fine print of ducks circling in at the end of a day by Richard E. Bishop; a delightful color picture of an Arkansas fruit stall by M. R. Bebb of Oklahoma; a lovely view of Yosemite valley by Harold L. Doolittle, a Califorina artist, and "Aspens" by Roi Partridge, also a well known Bay etcher. The remaining picture of goats is by an Englishman, Allen W. Seaby, whose work is internationally accepted as great among print makers.

This small group of pictures will remain in Daly City for two weeks.

The library hopes you will come in to look at them.

Daly City Man Jailed For South City Theft

A 26-year-old Daly City man was sentenced to 10 days in the county jail for petty theft after he was arrested in South San Francisco last week.

Calvin Gray will serve his term in the South San Francisco jail. He was also placed on probation for three years by Judge Thomas L. Bocci.

Albert Panez, 29, 151 Victory avenue, South San Francisco, had similar charges dismissed. He was arrested with Gray.

The theft, according to police, was a spare tire from a truck belonging to Wright Cleaners. The loss was reported by James Wright.

County's Share Of National Budget About $168,111,000

San Mateo county's share of the $78,587,000,000 "lame duck" spending budget proposal for 1953-54, presented to congress by President Truman on January 9, will reach about $168,111,000, at the $586.57 statewide average per capita for the 286,600 people in the county, California Taxpayers' association estimated today.

For California as a whole, the proposed federal spending program —if it is not reduced by congress— will reach an estimated $6,939,-232,000, at the statewide average of $586.57 per person for each of the state's 11,830,210 population.

Every billion dollars that congress cuts out of the 1953-54 spending proposal means about $7.50 saved per person in California—or about $30 saved for each family of four in the state.

"When congressional committees get to work on the new budget, they will find wide areas where reductions can be made," the Taxpayers' association said.

"Congress should make a realistic federal spending budget, holding it to actual needs, and start to reduce the national debt, so that taxes can be cut," the Taxpayers' association declared.

"Trespasser" Gets Pack of Cigarettes

A 23-year-old Oakland youth was picked up here Monday morning after an unsuccessful attempt to rob a Brunswick street home.

Arthur Albert Garcia, alias Arthur Garcia Schalk, was apprehended by Officers Edmund Heim and John Walsh at the corner of Oliver and Brunswick streets after he had run from the home of Jack Miller, 875 Brunswick.

All Garcia had for his efforts when police nabbed him was a partial package of cigarettes. He had hidden under his overcoat a nail file, which police believed he had planned to use to break into the Miller home.

Police were summoned by Mrs. F. E. Lamb, 154 Winchester, who reported seeing a man trying to enter the Miller home.

After Garcia was caught he was brought back to Mrs. Lamb, whose husband, Francis, identified him as the culprit.

Garcia was booked here for investigation on charges of trespassing.

PEDESTRIAN SAFETY

When a pedestrian steps from the curb at a crosswalk, he has started to cross the street and, reminds the National Automobile Club, the right of way is his. By giving the pedestrian the breaks as well as the brakes motorists can easily cut accidental injuries and fatalities.

Pingry Resigns Post On Rec Commission

George Pingry, chairman of the recreation commission, tendered his resignation to the city council Monday night.

He explained in the written resignation that planned highway projects for the future will necessitate more of his attention to his position as right of way agent for the state division of highways.

The council moved that a resolution be drawn up commending Pingry for his services in the recreation post.

No one has been appointed to fill the post to date.

A HUMBLE APPEAL

West African Youth Seeks to Enter Jeff

(Ed. note: This letter printed below, received recently by Stanford Hannah, superintendent of the Jefferson Union high school district, is, we believe, one of the most sincere, appealing messages to come under our scrutiny for a long time. The letter, which can speak for itself far better than any paraphrasing on our part could do, was written by T. M. Ukpabio, 24-year-old youth from Yaba, Lagos, Nigeria, West Africa.)

The President
Jefferson Union High School
Daily (sic) City, California
Dear Sir,

Most humbly and respectfully I beg to request you to grant me in your usual graciousness a free scholarship award to cover tuition, fee, board and room, for any period of time, in your institution of learning, which will enable me to pursue my academic studies to qualify in either education and administration, economic and journalism or business administration.

Read About Jeff

While making this humble appeal for your sympathetic consideration, I beg to state that I come to know about this institution as I read through a journal in the Library of the United States Information service here in Lagos, Nigeria. Therefore my interest in seeking admission in this institution is equally important as my earnest desire in requesting you to grant me a scholarship.

I lost my father when I was 12. It was his great ambition to give me education, and I know only too well the great sacrifices he made in providing me with elementary school expenses.

Inspired By Father

Though a boy of 24 now, I became inspired of my late father's ambitions for me and through my poor mother could only encourage and help me to read up to primary standards, but she wishes to see my father's fond hope realized, if only partially not for the benefit of the family only, but also for the benefit of Nigeria, my mother country, which needs men with professional qualifications to help carry out the different civic responsibilities, which still lie untouched.

A Good Scholar

It is my submissions that I shall ever remain a good scholar throughout my academic years, if only my humble application is considered and I also promise to do my part time jobs, while attending the school, to demonstrate individual effort towards my burning ambition.

I need hardly add that if I am not granted this timely request, I shall be forced to give up my ambitions, since there is no other way to get at it except through your kind help for which I appeal, but I am confident that I have a unique opportunity before me. Your enthusiasms and liberal spirit, as a good president of so a renowned institution of learning, and the philanthropic works of the American institutions to encourage the education of international orphan students are not only laudable, but its records go down into history of the international importance the Western World plays in the common struggle for World Peace and Freedom.

Hoping to hear again from you at your earliest convenient time.

Wishing Jefferson Union High School a good work and a steady progress.

Yours very humbly,
Thompson M. Ukpabio

(Ed. annotation: Hannah says he's "in a quandry" over this appeal. The West African youth is obviously far advanced over high school learning, according to Hannah. "He definitely belongs in an institution of higher learning, judging by the quality of his letter," Hannah added. However, Hannah plans to contact an acquaintance in the state department of education and see if some type of scholarship can be arranged for Ukpabio. He also intends to answer Ukpabio's letter, informing him of his action.)

HMB Student Is Named SMJS Prexy

Richard Valladao, an aeronautics major, has been elected president of the San Mateo Junior College student body for the coming spring semester. He is from Half Moon Bay. He defeated Jerry Preston of Belmont in the election.

This Friday and Saturday the junior college players will stage their term play in the college auditorium at 8:30. The comedy, "Lo and Behold," is by John Patrick. Tickets will be on sale at the door each night.

The college basketball team placed second in the state tournament at Modesto, losing out in the final round to Los Angeles City College. San Mateo defeated Long Beach, Glendale and Ventura before bowing to the Los Angeles five. Al Mangin of San Mateo was picked as one of the tournament all-star team forwards.

Next Monday evening Community Hall of the adult center will give an illustrated lecture on Ireland as its regular Monday evening program, with Jane Rawson, formerly of England and Australia giving the lecture. A week later, January 19, Paul Travis will lecture and show color pictures on Scandinavia. The public is invited without charge.

The college adult center is now enrolling students for its winter quarter, with 178 sections of classes offering work for the men and women of the peninsula. Schedules of the classes are available at the college office. The enrollment for the adult center this year has reached 6,000.
